

Room in roof

BASF Walltite sprayed directly onto Breather Membrane on new build. Once spray insulated, plasterboard sheets were applied. This roof was insulated to a U value of $0.11 \text{ w/m}^2/\text{°C}$.

Given your U value requirements, we can calculate the foam thickness required using a computer programme which complies with BS5250 and supply copies for Building Control.

