

Boat and Marine Insulation.

Sprayed foam is ideal for the insulation of narrowboats, barges and yachts.

It adheres tenaciously to the steelwork and because it is fully bonded to the substrate, there are no gaps on the cold side of the insulation, which eliminates the possibility of condensation.

Sprayed between battens before the lining is fitted.

