

Mobile Garage and Workshop.

This is the base unit of a mobile Garage/Workshop for the British Antarctic Survey.

It was completely filled with closed cell PU foam during construction in Holmfirth.

The sides were treated with 150mm of Sprayfoam insulation.

The whole building was designed "Flat Pack" so that it could be transported to the Halley Base on the Antarctic and assembled there.

\(See attached pdf\)

