

Mobile Shuttering System.

This contraption is a moveable shuttering system. During the making of a new rail crossing over the Medway, as the weather got cold, the concrete cast into the shuttering was cooling too quickly.

MPI sprayed the external surfaces of the shuttering to insulate and control the cooling of the concrete.

Sprayed in-situ 100' over water.

