

Void Filling.

This is the head of a 30 metre deep railway ventilation shaft that had become redundant, it was filled remotely using a closed cell, lightweight Polyurethane foam.

P.U. Foams also offer structural and stabilisation properties as well as fantastic thermal properties.

